13 What Happens in the Red Room...

There might not be a more opulent destination in Napa Valley than Raymond Vineyards' impeccably designed Red Room—and you're going to experience this den of pleasure like no one else.

To celebrate Raymond Vineyards' 50th Anniversary, you and 11 of your most hedonistic friends will luxuriate in the Red Room for an evening that will delight every one of your senses. Joined by Masters of Wine Vanessa Conlin, Clare Tooley, and Susan Lin—and of course Raymond's irrepressible proprietor Jean-Charles Boisset—you'll enjoy live music, plus a four-course dinner prepared from the estate gardens by the Raymond culinary team. JCB will share the finest wines from Raymond and his massive JCB portfolio, which stretches from Napa Valley to Burgundy and beyond.

In case you haven't heard, Jean-Charles is a walking bacchanal, and the chances of this evening ending with the dessert course are less than nil. It'll be a debauchorous night to remember—don't miss it!
